

Bridget Greeley

Bridget Greeley is the Senior Manager of Education Initiatives at Growth Philanthropy Network. She focuses on the Massachusetts Systems Initiative, the Learning Community and Annual Conference on Scaled Impact. Prior to joining SIE, she served as the Senior Data Associate at Educators for Excellence where she provided strategic insights to drive advocacy campaigns and worked to ensure that teachers have a leading voice in the policies that impact their students and profession. Bridget started her career in education as a high school math teacher in Bridgeport, CT. She is a former Teach for America corps member and current admissions reviewer. Bridget earned her Master's degree in Secondary Education at Johns Hopkins University and earned her Bachelor's degree in Mathematics and Social Justice through Quantitative Literacy from Lafayette College. Bridget serves on the Robert F. Kennedy Center for Justice & Human Rights Young Leader board.