

Jennifer Cleghorn

Jennifer Cleghorn is Associate Vice President, Education at Growth Philanthropy Network/Social Impact Exchange. She brings extensive experience in working with foundations, nonprofits and government to further effective and impactful education programs and policies from early childhood through postsecondary education. With a strong understanding of strategy development, communications and management, Jennifer has advanced many educational efforts that work to fulfill the promise of educational opportunity for all students.

Jennifer has a deep background in bringing together government, nonprofits, practitioners, civic leaders, advocates, philanthropies and corporate executives to advance transformative initiatives in education. Most recently she served as a Senior Fellow at the Regents Research Fund, a nonprofit intermediary, and the Director of Education at the Team Pennsylvania Foundation. She also worked as a Special Assistant to the Secretary of Education at the Pennsylvania Department of Education and as a Program Officer at the Annenberg Foundation. Jennifer started her career as a teacher and youth development director.

Jennifer has an Ed.M. from Columbia University's Teachers College in Curriculum and Teaching and a BA in Sociology and Anthropology from Earlham College.
